

Project Summary

Title of the Project:	'Mangrool Mega Watershed' - Integrated Watershed Management Programme (IWMP)
Location(s) of the Project:	Bela Mandal, Adilabad district
Total duration of the Project ( months ):	84 Months
Project Cost:	₹510.40 lakh
Objectives of the Project:	To restore the ecological balance by harnessing, conserving and developing degraded natural resources such as soil, vegetative cover and water.
Target group(s):	1790 farmers
Final beneficiaries:	Tribal, dalit and other communities
Expected results:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Increased water table (Depth to Ground water level) from 10.08 meters to 5.58 meters</li> <li>• Increased irrigation potential (Ayakut) from 2.80 Ha to 338.50 Ha</li> <li>• Increased area under horticulture from 3.72 Ha to 1137.30 Ha</li> <li>• Increased area under fodder from 2.00 Ha to 74.75 Ha</li> <li>• Enhanced milk production from 99 litre/day to 1600 litre/day</li> </ul>
Main activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Entry Point Activities</li> <li>• Institution &amp; Capacity Building (I&amp;CB)</li> <li>• Production System Improvement</li> <li>• Livelihoods for Assetless</li> <li>• Natural Resource Management</li> </ul>